MIND... SET TO SUCCESS

(Sometimes we just gotta have... fun)

Dear John

This month, with all the cold weather (and it really has been cold I saw a politician with his hands in his own pockets) I've chosen to use this newsletter to put a smile on your face. Next month I'll give you some insight and ideas based on my new keynote speech offering for 2011 which is all about doing more with less. I've also set a challenge in this missal which is not to mention Christmas once apart from a tenuous link, well... maybe at the end so here goes, chuckle (or groan) muscles at the ready. Here are some amusing thoughts I've collected over the year.

If you phone up wanting to buy marijuana, would you press the hash key?

Why do bankruptcy lawyers expect to get paid?

Whoever said nothing is impossible I wonder if they've ever tried slamming a revolving door.

A procrastinator's work is never done?

I once almost had a psychic girlfriend but she left me before we met.

I was also once asked out by Elle McPherson, I was in her room.

My friend's wife's motto is 'Veni, Vidi, Visa': I came, I saw. I did a bit of shopping.

I've always tried to pay my bills with a smile. Unfortunately they want money.

Mick Hucknall made love to 3,000 women in the space of 3 years in the 80's.

That last one apparently is the truth, which means he slept with an average of 2.74 women a day assuming one day off in the leap year. Well... he must have had a rest at some point. Also, rumour has it his other hobbies during that time were standing up and breathing.

You are receiving this newsletter because I've either worked with you, you've seen one of my presentations or I've met you networking.

If you'd like to unsubscribe just follow the instructions at the bottom of this email.

Here's something I noticed the other day and couldn't believe my eyes. Look at the Sunkist logo below and you'll see it's actually spelt Sinkist. No 'SUN' just 'SIN' or do my eyes deceive me? Next time you go to the supermarket have a look for yourself.

The Challenge - For a bit of fun, I challenge you to drop this useless fact in to your next conversation

Coins were first produced around 700 BC by the Lydians, a people who lived in what is now called Turkey.

Well that's the tenuous Christmas link sorted.

I Can't Believe They Said That, or... Doooh!!!

"The word 'genius' isn't applicable in football. A genius is a guy like Norman Einstein."

Joe Theisman, NFL

quarterback

Yes Joe and don't forget Barry DaVinci and Isambard Kingdom Shuttleworth.

"Whenever I watch TV and see those poor starving kids all over the world, I can't help but cry. I mean I'd love to be skinny like that, but not with all those flies and death and stuff."

Mariah Carey

Mariah may I say, the Virgin Rail school of charm and diplomacy course you went on is really paying off, keep it up... NOT!!!!

... and finally

We're coming to that time of the year when event organisers are arranging conferences and kick off meetings for next year.

If you are organising an event and you're looking for a motivational speaker who can also boost the morale of your people as well as communicate your message about team building or change then I might just be the right fit. Why not give me a call?

If you want your people to engage with each other more efficiently and effectively, and you're looking for a unique speaker with an innovative approach and style then please click here for more information.

John, pick up the phone now and call me on 01274 685152 to discuss how I can help you make your next event not just a success, but an investment in which you'll receive a benefit to your bottom line.

Have a very merry Christmas and I'll be in touch again at the beginning of the next decade (starts 1st Jan 2011 apparently).
